Quick Start Guide

- 1. Gain support from other NA members "By working together for our common welfare, we achieve the true spirit of anonymity." Basic Text, Tradition Twelve
- 2. Choose a meeting platform Consider cost, accessibility, ease of use, and the features if offers.
- 4. List the meeting information Include all the information needed to access the meeting, and consider where to list it.
- 3. Decide on a day, time, and meeting format Groups use a variety of formats to enhance the atmosphere of recovery in their meetings.

- 5. What service positions are needed? Virtual meetings may benefit from additional service positions.
  - 6. Ensure the meeting settings are secure Careful attention to this can prevent meeting disruptions.
  - 8. Decide how to provide literature and keytags Virtual meetings are encouraged to consider the Fellowship's guidance when deciding how to make literature available.
- 7. Set up options for the Seventh Tradition Virtual meetings are free to practice the principle of self-support.

- 9. Will attendance cards be signed? Meetings may choose to provide some form of attendance verification for members who request it.
- 10. Ensure there is an atmosphere of recovery "An atmosphere of recovery in our groups is one of our most valued assets, and we must guard it carefully..." Basic Text, Tradition Two

- 12. Is the meeting accessible to members with additional needs? "... every addict can recover in this program on an equal basis." Basic Text. Tradition Three.
- 11. Are newcomers being welcomed and finding sponsors? New members may need some extra help to get connected and start building relationships in NA.

