"I have something to say" Raise this green card to make a comment, give your opinion, or ask a question.	"I agree with the decision at hand, all things considered." Raise this green card to ASSENT if you are generally in support of the proposal. Assent does not mean that you agree with every aspect of a proposal, but that you have heard the discussion, have had a chance to participate in the process of finalizing the proposal, and are prepared to support the decision.

"I have a process observation." Raise the orange card when you want us to look at our process. For example, when you see a need to refocus, you want to acknowledge another person's concern and have it posted for all to see, you'd like to suggest a break, or you think it's time for a straw poll or a call for consensus.	"I personally can't do this, but I won't stop others from doing it." Raise this orange card to STAND ASIDE if you have a serious personal disagreement with a proposal, but are willing to let the proposal pass.

"Stop! Our agreed upon procedures are not being followed!" Raise your red card to indicate serious problems with the process such as when... • the discussion has gone off topic • a member is dominating the discussion or being otherwise inconsiderate	"I cannot support this or allow the group to support this. It is against our principles." Raise the red card to BLOCK -- a rare and extreme form of dissent taken only if you honestly believe that a Tradition, Concept, or spiritual principle fundamental to NA is directly violated by a proposal. Blocking GSRs will be asked to explain their objections and may be asked to work with others on the matter in question and bring it back to a subsequent meeting.
