Hello,

World Unity Day is almost here!

World Unity Day—the 24-hour worldwide event—is coming soon! We have just published the schedule on our annual events page. Please be aware that we expect the schedule to change. Check back to make sure you have the most current information.

This day-long extravaganza includes workshops, presentations, and videos. Many zones are offering presentations and sessions, and the board is working with members around the world to create a variety of panels as well. We'll be starting 5 September at 9pm Pacific Daylight Time. At the midpoint, at 9am 6 September, we will have a moment of silence, and then NA members all around the globe will say the Serenity Prayer together, wherever we are, in celebration of our worldwide unity.

If you or someone you know is interested in offering live interpretation for any of the sessions or any timeslots, let us know before 1 September by emailing nick@na.org. The event will be broadcast in English but we will be grateful and happy to support interpretation for any language group.

Please join us for some or all of the festivities and know, wherever and whoever you are, your part in Narcotics Anonymous matters. You are NA, and your membership, your recovery, your service and your prayers contribute the recovery of someone you have not yet met. This extraordinary thing we share is saving lives – including our own. Thank you.
